

Images from the Eighteenth Annual Chemathon, May 11, 2002

---

Chemistry building lobby

Opening ceremony

Judging the crystals for the Threaded Ions competition

Chemical Jeopardy competition

We need brain power! (at the snack machine)

Threaded Ions Competition

First-year team winners, left to right: Joppatowne, Fallston, Allegany, John Carroll, Blake

Second-year team winners, left to right: Wootton, Watkins Mill, Joppatowne, Gov. Thos. Johnson, Fort Hill

---

Chemistry Signs competition on the theme "The Chemistry of Natural Toxins" - first-year teams

first place winner - Blake High School second place winner - Watkins Mill High School third place winner - Joppatowne High School fourth place winner - Rockville High School

fifth place winner - Gov. Thos. Johnson High School

---

Chemistry Signs competition on the theme "The Chemistry of Natural Toxins" - second-year teams

first place winner - Walt Whitman High School second place winner - Thomas S. Wootton High School third place winner - Gov. Thos. Johnson High School fourth place winner - Northern High School fifth place winner - Fort Hill High School

---

Awards Ceremony

First place grand prize team, first year: Allegany High School

Second place grand prize team, first year: Watkins Mill High School

First place grand prize team, second year: Governor Thomas Johnson High School

Second place grand prize team, second year: Joppatowne High School

Coordinating Committee, left to right: Dr. Juliana Pax, Mike Zapf, Diane Schmit, Dr. Howard DeVoe, Eric Reinhold, Dr. Don Berkowitz, Doria Hillsman

---